The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

June 14, 2009

The Holy Eucharist

The Holy Eucharist is a sacrament and a sacrifice. In the Holy Eucharist, under the appearance of bread and wine, the Lord Christ is contained, offered and received.

The Holy Eucharist was created by Christ at the Last Supper, the night before He died. He took the bread, blessed and broke it, and giving it to his apostles, said: "Take and eat; this is My body"; then He took a cup of wine, blessed it, and giving it to them, said: "All of you drink of this; for this is My blood of the new covenant which is being shed for many unto the forgiveness of sins".

After the bread and wine have been changed into Our Lord's body and blood, only the appearances of bread and wine remain.

Choose the Best Answer:

1. A broken host contains: (a) all of Christ (b) part of Christ (c) none of Christ (d) Christ in pain.
2. At Mass the bread and wine change in: (a) appearance (b) substance (c) condition (d) size.
3. All who received the Eucharist are one body in Christ because the bread is: (a) holy (b) good (c) one (d) universal.

Let us Pray

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy kingdom come;
Thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Amen
